art have been distressed by of interest shown by their husr concerts and musical entertain-The average man prefers the ny of the faithful pipe to the in-strains of Bach or Verdi. Condi-however, seem to be improving, so r ones can cheer up, for a number bastirred themselves to attend the on Friday evening. Two wellbestirred themselves to attend the ton Friday evening. Two well-business men were seen with that expression on their faces during of the classio numbers, while their we're engrossed in the all absorbpic of 'tone-production.' A few were there for the purpose of action, yes, conversation, so that Mr. Blank, who is not musically inbut wishes to make an impression is Wait, who, by the way, is quite tolan, calls noxt week he will gain by talking in a knowing (?) way the 'diminuendo and crescendo'. One man was so engrossed, or by talking in a knowing (*) way the "diminuendo and crescendo", One man was so engrossed, or carried away with the music that a strains of the first stanza of the is "Toreador" song were ended be- o vigorously applaud, and had it in for the fair one beside him, he have created quite a disturbance, in front" were those of the rex. who came to admire the of the prima-donna and they were appointed, for a groom of scarcely pointed, for a groom of scarcely was heard to remark: "She's a why do summer roses fade." said irk man as he looked at the with-link leaves in the hollow of his The maid smiled placidly and his sentiments. The roses, how-he well knew had been sent by the who soon will send her the shower over the teacups comes word of rtations of a certain well-known or and a petite student, who has tudying cupid as well as litera-

y young business man from the as offered a well known Salt Lake a home. The offer, however, was d: there seems to be another man mber of the matrons and maids re at "The Pit" have decided that selng those gowns they will return r usual occupation, "window-wish-

work for the charity ball during the

Gold Medal

Best Mfg. Furs

1905

Miss Helen Buckingham was the hostess of a beautiful luncheon yesterday afternoon in honor of Miss Sarah Alexander and Miss Crete Pinkerton. The colors used for the decoration were those chosen for the colors of the two weddings, green, white and yellow. A tall cut-glass vase of yellow and white chrysanthemums formed the centerpiece, with garlands of smilax extending to the corners of the table. The place cards were hand-decorated in the prevailing colors. Besides the guests of honor covers were laid for Mrs. Everett Buckingham. Mrs. Thomas Pinkerton, Mrs. Edward Moore, Mrs. Parker of Chicago, Mrs. W. H. Alexander, Mrs. Wing B. Allen, Miss Dunster, Miss Olive Jennings, Miss Dalsy Savage.

Miss Anna McCornick entertained at a uncheon yesterday. Covers were laid for Miss Nan Short entertained a number of her friends at a delightful "goober" perty yesterday afternoon in honor of her guest, Miss Voloa Smith of Denver. The guest, Miss Voloa Smith of Denver. The son and white carnations. Long strings of peanuts were suspended from the four corners of the room to the chandeller. The guests were given peanut dolls to dress in tissue paper, a prize being awarded to the most artistic one. Those invited to meet Miss Smith were. Mrs. George Walker, Mrs. William L. Barnes, Mrs. Dryden Coombs. Mrs. Leon Anstee, Mrs. Guy Miner, Mrs. Ethel Olson, Mrs. C. A. Short of Murray, Mrs. Frederick U. Leonard, Mrs. A. Evans, Mrs. F. M. Driggs of Ogden, Mrs. Irwin Schuck, Miss Clara Delghton, Miss Leta Morris, Miss Clara Delghton, Miss Leta Morris, Miss Clara Delghton, Miss Leta Morris, Miss Gison of Lavon, Miss Blanche Strickley Miss Holliter Hancock, Miss Mand Gean, Miss Holliter Hancock, Miss Mand Bean, Miss Minnie Burmester, Miss Mand

ALT LAKE CITY'S MANUFACTURING FURRIER

I. U. ULUJL

High-Grade Furs, Fur Lined Garments, Jackets,

Neck Pieces, Muffs and Children's Sets. & &

GLOSZ'S PRICES ON FURS MAKE BUY-

NG ELSEWHERE AN EXTRAVAGANCE

the popular staples, as well as the fads and fancies as pre-

MONTHS OF SUMMER AT A MINIMUM EXPENSE. MANY OF THESE FURS HAVE ALREADY ADVANCED IN THE

OPEN MARKET TO DOUBLE OUR PRICES.

ing at lowest prices and best workmanship.

Mail orders will receive prompt attention.

free of charge and held until wanted.

scribed by "Dame Fashion."

flects itself in the product.

Our Fur Shop of 1905 and 1906 is completeness in every detail, presenting the latest approved modes in all

PELTS WERE PURCHASED BEFORE THE GREAT RISE, AND MANUFACTURED BY US DURING THE DULL

For Fur garments to be made to measure we will sub-

Remodeling, repairing, relining, redyeing and clean-

Upon payment of a small deposit Furs will be stored mit estimates, designs and skins from which to select. The standard which governs our workrooms is high. It re-

The Thistle club will entertain the public at a grand Scotch concert and ball in their hall, corner of Main and First South, Tuesday evening, October 31, at 8 p. m. A good time is anticipated.

The American Literary club will hold a meeting and reception at the home of Mrs. Little on East First South street on Thursday afternoon. All ladies welcome. Miss Olive Jennings entertained a dozen friends at an "old-fashloned" party on Tuesday evening in honor of Miss Crete Pinkerton. The rooms were effectively decorated with red cosmos and carna-tions. The place cards also were in red.

One of the delightful affairs of the week was the bridge party given by Mrs. William C. Hall on Tuesday evening, in honor of Miss Leila Trent. The rooms were bright with yellow chrysanthemums. Ten tables were filled with players.

Diploma

for Finest Display of Furs

1905

William Childs, Mrs. Edward Moore, Miss Helen Buckingham, Miss Olive Jennings and Miss Daisy Savage, Miss Bess Hall, Miss Leila Stingley.

Mrs. O. K. Lewis and Mrs. M. R. Stewart entertained at a pretty luncheon on Thursday afternoon, in honor of Mrs. Robert Barkley of Helena, Mont. A mound of pink cosmos formed the centerplece, with broad pink satin ribbon extending to the corners of the table. Covers were laid for nine.

Maj. and Mrs. A. M. Smith entertained informally at dinner on Friday evening in honor of Maj. and Mrs. Edward Palmer Pendleton. The table was prettly decorated with white chrysanthemisms and plumosa. Beside the guests of honor, covers were laid for Col. and Mrs. Benjamin Lockwood, Mr. and Mrs. Richard A. Keyes, Mrs. Robert Barkley, and Dr. Keller of Fort Douglas.

Mrs. F. A. Druchl entertained at a stall party resterday afternoon in honor of Miss Charlotte Druchl of Chicago. The other guests were Mrs. Walter Druchl, Miss Milton Oglesby

Mr. James McGregor will entertain at dinner tomorrow evening at the Alta club, in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Richard A. Keyes and Mrs. Robert Barkley.

A surprise party was given Mr George Smithen at his home on Monday evening, the hours being pleasantly passed with music and cards. Prizes were won by Miss Mamie Frees and Mr. B. W. Mayo. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. George Smithen, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Smithen, Mr. and Mrs. R.K. Patterson, Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Mayo. Miss Frees, Miss Smith, Messrs. Rawlings, Arthur Frees, Emil Frees.

Weddings and Engagements.

Weddings and Engagements.

On Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock will take place the marriage of Miss Sarah Alexander and Ashby Du Bois Cleveland, the ceremony to be performed by Rev. William M. Paden. Mrs. Wing B. Allen will be the matron of honor and Theodore Gentch the best man. Following the ceremony a reception will be held, those assisting being Mrs. David Murray, Mrs. Charles Fifield, Miss Addie Zane. Miss Leta McMillan, Misses Alla and Margaret Miller.

The marriage of Miss Edyth Mae Hale and Thomas Benton Hunter, Jr., of Mon-terey, Cal., will take place at the resi-dence of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick A. Hale on Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock. The wedding will be a very quiet one, wit-nessed only by a few close friends of the bride.

The marriage of Miss Kate Jeremy and Cuibert L. Olson was solemnized last evening at the home of the bride's mother on Seventh Weat street. The ceremony was performed by Bishop O. F. Whitney in the presence of the relatives and a few close friends of the bride and groom. The music was furnished by Prof. J. J. McCiellan and Willard Weihe. The bride was attended by Miss Ethel Allan as maid of honor, the best man being Emmett K. Olson. The bride wore a beautiful gown of cream chiffon over taffeta, with real lace trimmings and carried a shower of white roses. The bridesmaid wore a dainty gown of white muli and carried pluk carnations. The rooms were prettily decorated in crimson and white American Beauty roses and potted palms being used in profusion in the parlor, while carnations and smilax were effectually combined in the diningroom. Those assisting during the evening wee Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Hansen, Mr. and Mrs. Carl P. Hardy and Miss Mamie Eldredge. Mr. and Mrs. Olson left on the late train for the coast, where they will spend several weeks before returning to this city, where they will make their future home.

The marriage of Frank J. Judge of this city and Mrs. Elizabeth Wyman Young of Louisville. Ky., was solemnized hast Wednesday, the wedding being a very quiet one. After spending several weeks in the East Mr. and Mrs. Judge will make their home in this city.

The marriage of Miss Lena Pratt of Kansas City and Eugene Walter Baysinger of this city occurred at the bride's home last Wednesday afternoon at a o'clock. The ceremony was performed beneath a bower of autumn leaves and flowers. Miss Nelle Vaughn sang "The Song of the Heart." during the ceremony, which was performed by Rev C. C. Flanagin of the First Baptist church. The bridesmalds were Miss Maud Thomas and Miss Olive Pratt. Little Miss Sarah Shaughter was the flower girl and George Pratt the best man. Mr. and Mrs. Baysinger left on the late train for this city, where they will make their future home. Next Tuesday evening Mrs. Eber W. Hall, a sister of the bride, will give a reception in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Baysinger.

The marriage of Miss Marjorle True and William F. Bee took place on Wednesday evening at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. H. W. Horne. The ceremony was performed at $5.30 oclock in the presence of the relatives of the bride and groom by Rev. E. I. Goshen. The bride and groom stood in front of a bank of palms and yellow chrysanthemums while the service was read. The dining-room was bright with many autumn flowers and berries. The bride wore a handsome gown of cream silk, trimmed with medaillons of valenciennes lace. Her bouquet was of white roses.

Mrs. Kirkpatrick and Miss Ruth Kirkpatrick sturned on Wednesday from the coast and ill he at home at the Marshall residence un-il after the holidays.

Mrs. Edwin Petiti, accompanied by Mrs. Miles Romney, Jr., left has evening for Mes-co, where she expects to remain about six seeks, visiting her sister Mrs. W. Y. Wynkoop has gone to Los An-reles, where she will make her future homo-vith her daughter, Mrs. Agnes Osborne. Dr. and Mrs. D. Moore Lindsay have re-turned from Europe, where they have spent the past four months.

Mrs. Nellie Rasche is expected home from Vellesley during the week, where she spont

BABY DAY

Every Wednesday

Special attention and special prices to the children on that day. The charm of a successful child portrait becomes more precious as the years pass by. Child portraiture stands in a class by itself. It requires special apparatus and accessories and a peculiar tact and skill on the part of the operator to draw out the child nature and secure in the negative an impression of its characteristics.

We have a faculty of winning their confidence and co-operation that never fails to secure a successful portrait.

Scott, Photographer Phone: Ind., 3489 25 E. 3rd South.

a couple of weeks with Miss Julia Cullen, who has just entered her freshman year at the college.

Mrs A. F. Watson has returned from a trip of several weeks in the East, and is at home to her friends at 621 East Second South street. Mrs. William H. Lindsey and son of Butte, Mont, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ulysses Duguet.

Miss Eveline Thomas returned from Ogden Sunday, after a week's visit with Mrs. Fred J. Kiesel.

Mr and Mrs. A. E. Wallace and Mrs. Wallace's mother, Mrs. Eno, and George Eno have moved from 103 First street to 86 C atrect.

Mrs. Mary Judge and Miss Katherino Judge are spending a few days at their country home in Cottonwood.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Callahan and Miss. Dorothy Kinney are now at home to their friends at their new home on Third and H streets.

Mrs. Charles P. O'Rourke of Mandan, N. D., is the guest of Mrs. E. P. Scoville.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Fitch are visiting with friends in the East. Mrs J. R. Hague and Miss Geneal of Idaho are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. James E. Clin-ton.

Mrs. W. H. Shelmendiner, accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. E. Grandall left on Friday for Los Angeles, where they will spend the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. William M. Rash are spending several weeks in California. Miss Cosgriff and Miss Elizabeth Cosgriff left on Monday for Cheyenne, where they were joined by Mr. Cosgriff and will spend several weeks in Chicago.

Mrs. A. W. Hatch, accompanied by her daughter, Miss Hattle, left for their home in Houston, Tex. after a pleasant visit with Mrs. J. C. Royle.

Mrs Wittington Underhill of Minneapolis, who has been the guest of Mrs. M. A. Breeden for the past two months, left for Kansas City, where she will visit friends before returning to her home.

Mr. and Mrs. Brigham Telle Cannon sailed from New York Tuesday for Europe, where they will spend a couple of months before re-turning to this city, where they will be at home to their friends after January 16.

Mrs. B. G. Raybould and Miss Raybould leave today for Los Angeles, where they will spend the winter.

Mrs. Walter C. Lewis of Butte is the guest of her mother, Mrs. S. S. Walker.

The concert to have been given under the auspices of the Sait Lake High School Alumni association has been postponed from October 27 to early in November. The proceeds will be devoted to the High School Gymnasium association.

Mrs. Jennie Sheiden of Casumnes, Cal., is visiting relatives and friends, and is the guest of her mother, Mrs. E. Derr, on First North.

of her mother, Mrs. E. Derr, on First North.

Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Bee will be at home at 477 East Third South after November 15.

Miss Eva Pitcher entertained most delightfully Friday evening at her home, 75 West
Fifth South street, in honor of her guest, Miss Catherine Trenchard of Boise, Ida. The evening was spent in playing games and also a guessing contest, in which prizes were won by Miss Lilly Booth and Roy Morton, after which an elaborate supper was served. The color scheme was in the University colors, red and white, the place cards being decorated with red and white baby ribbon. Those invited were: Misses Katherine Trenchard, Florence
Smith, Hattle Tremsyne, Lillie Booth, Lavon
Blonquist, Laura Mason, Nellie Welsh, Ada
Mansford Messrs. George Lowe, Warren
Ring, Good Callison, Earl Higson, Roy Morton, John Kephart, Ernest Perkes, Oland
Pratt, Lawrence Tremayne and Ab Nadle.

$20.00 PRIZE

A prize of $20.00 will be given by the Salt Lake Real Estate association for the best compilation of advertising matter to be placed on the reverse side of an envelope 312x612 inches, to be sent out by the business men of this

The matter to be such that will best advertise the resources, advantages, opportunities and progress of the city of Salt Lake and State of Utah. Selection of copy and awarding of prize to be made by Thomas Homer, chairman, Reul Estate association; Heber M. Wells, president of the Com-mercial club, and James A. Pollock, president of Salt Lake mining exchange.

Mail or deliver suggestions or copy, in sealed envelope, on or before the first day of November, at 3 o'clock p. m. to the office of the Salt Lake City Real Estate association, 15 West Second South street.

You are not limited to one trial. Send a dozen suggestions if you have them: the last one may win the prize

FLASHES FROM THE WIRE

Senator John Birge a prominent Republican and well-known manufacturer of Bristol, Conn. was killed when a horse he was driv-ing ran away, throwing him from his car-riage to the curb.

The Rev R. C. Russell, the Catholic chap-lain at Ancon, has resigned and left Panama Saturday for New York on a special mission from Bishop Jungui to secure co-workers in the canal zone. He will confer with Cardinal

At the conclusion of a week's trial District Judge Good at Auburn, Neb, sustained a mo-tion to dismiss the charge against Charles M. Chamberlain, accused of wrecking the Cham-berlain bark of Tecumseh. The specific charge was embezziement.

Joseph Turnis of St. Louis was instantly killed at Chatsworth, Ill., Friday by coming in contact with an electric wire while chasing his hat, which had been blown off by the wind. Widlam Meister, in attempting to drag the man's body from the wire, goes a similar fate.

In the event of a change in the Cabinet at Tokio, Baron Hayashi, Japaness Minister to England, is likely to be called home to take charge of the Foreign office.

Harry Allen has been sentenced to eight years at McNeil's island pentientiary by Judge Whitson in the United States court at Spoking the postoffice at Camdan Wash, last November, His partner, George Wilson, was killed by a posse the day after the robbery.

Maj. C. H. Barth, Tweifth infaniry, instruc-or at the military at service and staff col-ege at Fort Leavenworth, is believed to be lying as the would of injuries sustained re-cently when a horse fell upon him.

The Russian cruiser Leva probably will leave Maro Island direct for Vladivostok on Saturday She will have 2000 tons of coal in her bunkers. She will make no stay at San Francisco and will take back her complete crew, no desertions having occurred. Lieut, Kahtin reports that Vladivostok big ice-breakers will make a way for the cruiser.

A dispatch from Forsyth, Mont, says former County Clerk Charles W. Hailey of Rosebud county, who was under bonds to answer in the District court to being implicated in a gigan-tic bounty fraud, by which it is claimed the State was defrauded out of £0,000, has disappeared. It is believed he has gone to South America.

While playing with matches Friday morning the two-and-one-half-year-old daughter of ex-Mayor Hardin of Bellingham. Wash. caught fire in her clothing and was so badly burned that she died several hours later.

Fail to Convict Woman.

We will run a special sale on furs and medium price trimmed hats the coming week : : : : :

We have consignments from the leading New York manufacturers. They will be offered at manufacturers' prices.

Trimmed hats for special sale

An eastern manufacturer sold us all they had at "a price." They comprise nearly all the new shapes sold at less than the cost of making 116 S. MAIN ST.

Grand Opening of the Grand Union Tea Co.

Thursday and Friday, Oct. 26-27. ALL ARE INVITED.

In order to get you to try our celebrated Grand Union Baking Powder and to visit our store, we will give to each purchaser of one can of Grand Union Baking Powder a genuine Inicol-plated French Coffee Biggan (4 pints.) This French Coffee Pot has a wooden handle and is the simplest drip coffee pot on the market. It has no bag to rot, no wire hoop to rust, break or mend; just a six-line square of muslin is required. Now, this nickel-plated coffee pot is worth far more than the price of the Baking Powder and we are simply giving it for the above mentioned two dars to induce you to come and Inspect our new store and complete line of teas, spices, extracts and soips and coffees, and we will have to limit the sale on these coffee pots to one to each purchaser, and there will be no more after they are gone. To properly make drip coffee you must have coffee fresh and ground as fine as flour, and we have a special pulverizer for that purpose.

Watch For Our Ads During the Week.

DENVER, Oct 21.—Having failed to agree after deliberating over forty hours, the jury which heard the evidence in the 270 MAIN ST.

270 MAIN ST.